

Railfinder is a booking site that makes train travel through Europe easy.

We're built on top of our custom search algorithm and the raw timetable data for all trains in Europe. That means we always show the best combination of journeys and tickets for any trip, no matter how far you're travelling.

Train travel is picking up momentum

- Strong political will to shift travel to trains in EU & Sweden.
- 20% of Swedish international travelers say they're switching to more sustainable ways of travel.
- Current 360k/year international train trips will 5x to ~1.9M with a 20% shift from flights to trains (Sweden).

No current booking site shows the best journeys & tickets available

- Current players miss best travel options, present long lists of options with unnecessary transfers & uncomfortable trains.
- Industry is stuck on old search algorithms that are optimized for national-scale travel. Some tricks are used by a few players to improve results, but are applied on results that aren't great for long-distance travel.

Railfinder built on custom algorithms optimized for a great train experience

- Railfinder builds on a database of EU-wide timetables and our custom algorithm optimized for long-distance journeys.
- Unique focus on both technology and design to create a great travel experience for long-distance train trips.
- We always show the best possible train journeys and the best ticket combination.

Strong potential both financially and in impact metrics

- CO2e savings equal in value to total revenue. Potential of saving up to 5% of Sweden's total carbon footprint.
- Potential sales 200+ MSEK with expansion to Nordics + Germany (20% market share).
- Company started with purpose of moving travel from flights to trains. Impact metrics defined in our company constitution.

Spännande!!! När går ni live? Försökt nyligen boka tågbiljetter till Bryssel och det är ju nästan omöjligt att hitta rimliga rutter och de flesta sidor säger bara att de inte finns några resor alls 😞 så ser fram emot detta! 🙌
